

Evangelism (Be a Big Mouth) – Lesson 3 Workbook

A Blind Date

Luke 18:35-43

1. What is this story about?

2. Besides the obvious, what else is going on here?

Luke 18:35-38

1. What do you think being a beggar would have been like in those days? What would be most difficult for a beggar?

2. How did the blind man respond to the news?

3. How did the blind man know who Jesus was?

Luke 18:39

1. What did the people say to the blind man?

2. Why do you think the people said that?

3. If you had been the blind man, what would you have done in response to their rebuke?

4. What was his response?

Luke 18:40-43

1. What does Jesus say?

2. Do you think Jesus knew what he wanted? Why, then, did He ask the man?

3. How do you think the blind man felt when Jesus asked, "What can I do for you?"

Ask yourself these questions:

- Do you, either accidentally or purposefully, using pure or tainted motives, keep others from Christ?
- Are there people who you feel don't deserve the Gospel?
- Are there people who you think are a waste of your time?
- Are there people that you view as "too far gone"?

Jesus said to the blind beggar, "What can I do for you?"

- What can Jesus do for people?
- Are there any limits to how He can do it?
- Is there anyone He can't do it for?
- Do you really believe that?

Homework:

- Memorize Luke 18:39
- Determine who, on your list of 5, seems the most unlikely to respond to Jesus, and make a point to talk with that person this week.
- Continue to pray every day for the 5 people on your list.
